PHOENIX_PHEROMONES

SELLER ON PANTYDEAL

Meet Phoenix_pheromones, a 41 years old “red-hot redheaded nerdy MILF who loves to get naughty”. She’s been selling her panties on Pantydeal for now 3 years. Read about how selling panties on Pantydeal has helped her regain self-confidence, and and earn money flexibly while managing a chronic illness.

PD: How did you first hear about used panties selling? And Pantydeal?

P_P: I first heard about used panty selling from a friend who used to work in the porn industry. One day, we were hanging out, and he randomly turned to me and said, "Hey, did you know that guys will buy your used panties?". I said, "Really?". He says, "Yeah.". So, because I'm so curious, the next week, I did a search on panty-selling sites. When I started to sell on Pantydeal, business started really taking off. That's when I decided to also start selling my pictures and videos on Pantydeal.

PD: What was your first impression of panty selling?

P_P: I've always been a very sexual person, so my first impressions of panty selling were positive. I thought it was kind of a neat way to share your scent with another and a fun way for others to get off. I also like that it was a way for me to make income around the chronic illness that I have. It's allowed me the flexibility that I can't get with any other type of work.

PD: Are you in a relationship? If so, do you share your panty selling with your partner?

P_P: Yes, I've been married to my husband for over a decade. He is fully aware of my panty-selling and is totally supportive of me. He often times helps me film or take pictures. I even have him work as my "quality control". Every panty I send out gets sniff-tested by him first to make sure that it has a quality scent. Selling quality products and giving buyers what they want is important to me. Panty selling has also opened me up to different sexual experiences and has gotten me exploring and finding new kinks. And I can't begin to tell how much it has boosted my confidence as well!

PD: Does selling your panties impact your sex life?

P_P: I would say that selling panties improves my sex life. I would say that I definitely have more sex since I started selling. I think a lot of it has to do with the fact that I am always talking about sex with buyers, and so I become turned on more often.

PD: Many sellers say they often become friends with other Pantydeal members. Have you experienced this?

P_P: Of course!! Most of my buyers are friends with me. It really is one of the best parts of the job...the companionship!! I'm a big talker, so I genuinely enjoy getting to know my buyers. It also makes things more comfortable when doing things like webcam. I have definitely met some amazing lifelong friends selling my panties!!

PD: What do you think is the most common misconception about this fetish?

P_P: I think the biggest misconception about the panty fetish is that people are weird for smelling panties. It really isn't weird. It's the simple science of pheromones. Hence, why I chose the name Phoenix Pheromones. Science says pheromones should drive you wild, and mine definitely will!!

PD: Do you speak about your panty selling business with your family or friends?

P_P: None of my family knows. Some of my close friends know. They are all very supportive of what I do and have zero judgements.

PD: How long do you think you will keep selling your panties?

P_P: I will keep selling them till people stop buying them!
